SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

Citizens are encouraged to beware when advertising puppies for sale. Placer County Sheriff's Detectives are currently searching for two suspects who replied to an ad in the newspaper listing five Beagle Puppies for sale. The suspects learned where the victims lived and when they would be away from home. The suspects went to the victim's house in Auburn and stole the puppies from the front yard of the residence.

A subsequent investigation revealed that Anthony Samuel Terra, a twenty three years old male from Sacramento and Mandy Diane Demers, 20 years old of Orangevale were responsible for the theft. Both suspects are currently wanted for theft and warrants for their arrests have been issued in the amount of $10,000.00.

ANTHONY S. TERRA

During the investigation detectives learned that the puppies were sold. The suspects were observed on video attempting to sell the puppies at a retail business in Elk Grove. Detectives fear that additional victim's will be taken advantage of and are encouraged to be careful when advertising puppies for sale.

Anyone with information regarding the suspects or the puppies should contact Detective Hudson at 530-889-7800.
